

Summer Madness

“Ere. Can you keep a secret?”

“At this time of year I don’t need to creep about carrying a big bag and wearing all this clobber and a mask. Good job really ‘cos it’s startin’ to get a bit warm. I reckon that’s why you lot leave you’re doors and windows open.

You’re all so good to me I should send you a Christmas card this year.”

Don’t suffer from summer madness!

Close windows when you go out.

Don’t leave your doors open even when you’re at home.

Beat the burglar.
